Methamphetamine arrests in Randolph

Contact: D. Traub, 781-830-4917

Two Fairmont St., Randolph, residents were placed under arrest by State Police narcotics detectives assigned to the Norfolk District Attorney's Office this afternoon and are expected to be arraigned in the Quincy District Court tomorrow morning.

Following a joint State and local police investigation, which remains ongoing, James F. Burgess, Jr., age 49, was arrested at that location for Possession of a Class B Substance (to wit: Methamphetamine) and Scott M. Donaghue, 33, was arrested on a warrant for Distribution of a Class B Substance (to wit: Methamphetamine.) The men both reside at 12 Fairmont Street.

The matter remains under active investigation at this time and there is no anticipated release of additional information prior to arraignment tomorrow.

As with all criminal defendants, these indictments are only accusations and the Constitution preserves the assumption that defendants are innocent unless and until they are proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
