Press Release

Four Juveniles Charged in Connection to February Homicide

Contact: D. Traub, 781-830-4917

Although the matter involves only juvenile defendants, necessitating that today's court proceedings are CLOSED and information including defendant identities is not public, the Norfolk District Attorney's Office announces that four juveniles were arrested this morning in connection with the February 15, 2022 murder of Nathan Paul in Quincy.

The defendants face charges connected to the alleged larceny from Mr. Paul and the use of counterfeit US currency in that larceny; one defendant also faces a charge of accessory after the fact of murder for alleged behavior following the shooting. (See May release below for information on homicide indictments.)

"This investigation remains active and ongoing, with Massachusetts State Police detectives assigned to the District Attorney's Office working closely with Quincy Police and law enforcement partners both regionally and nationally as Keniel Diaz-Romero remains under indictment and at-large," District Attorney Michal W. Morrissey said.

The closed juvenile arraignments are expected to occur today in Quincy District Court. Assistant District Attorney Phil Burr has been assigned to the case with Victim/Witness Advocate Erika Connolly.

"We thank the Quincy Police Department for their ongoing partnership in this," District Attorney Morrissey said.
