At approximately 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 13, 2025, Milton Police and Massachusetts State Police responded to multiple 911 calls about a stabbing on Blue Hills Parkway in Milton, Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey said today.

First responders provided medical treatment and transported Rose Lamour, 28, of Milton and Stanley Monteperousse, 35, formerly of Florida to area hospitals where they were pronounced deceased. Lamour and Monteperousse had been in a dating relationship and leave behind one child.

In addition to Milton Police and Troopers from the H Troop of Massachusetts State Police, State Police detectives assigned to the Norfolk District Attorney's Office, MSP Collision Analysis and Reconstruction Section, and MSP Crime Scene Services Section responded to the scene. A preliminary investigation suggests the incident is an apparent murder suicide, but the investigation remains active and ongoing. The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner will conduct autopsies.

Any member of the public with information about this incident is asked to contact Massachusetts State Police Detective Chris Moore at 781-830-4985 or Milton Police Detective Valter Pires at 617-898-4837.

This is a heartbreaking tragedy and DA Morrissey and Chief John King urge anyone feeling threatened by their partner or being abused in their relationship to contact police or community support services. Dove Inc. is a local non-profit group dedicated to assisting those experiencing domestic abuse at 617-471-1234. SafeLink is a statewide 24-hour hotline 1-877-785-2020.

This is an ongoing investigation, and no further information is being released.
